

Opportunity starts together.

A practical kind of progress.

The programme model connects learning sessions, mentor support and practical workshops. This review shows how an impact publication can link its narrative to clear measures.

240 Participants

36 Workshops

18 Mentors

All figures in this report are illustrative demonstration data.

Learn. Try. Connect.

LEARN

Build a shared foundation through focused, accessible sessions.

TRY

Apply the skills in a supported practical workshop.

CONNECT

Meet mentors and peers who can help with the next step.

Learning by doing.

A workshop creates space to ask questions, test an idea and learn alongside other people. The photograph illustrates the hands-on programme format.

A wider circle of access.

Foundation sessions

120

Practical workshops

72

Mentor circles

48

Illustrative programme participation / total 240.

Keep the allocation visible.

PROGRAMME AREA	SHARE
Learning delivery	45%
Equipment & materials	25%
Mentor support	20%
Administration	10%

A simple distribution supports the narrative. Clear labels and a defined total make the information easy to review.

Illustrative allocation percentages / total 100%.

Build on what works.

- ☐ Document the learning journey.
- ☐ Review participation barriers.
- ☐ Expand practical workshop time.
- ☐ Strengthen mentor handovers.
- ☐ Publish consistent measures.

More people.
More possibility.

COMMON GROUND

An impact story, clearly told.