

Opportunity starts together.

A practical kind of progress.

The programme model connects learning sessions, mentor support and practical workshops. This review shows how an impact publication can link its narrative to clear measures.

Learn. Try. Connect.

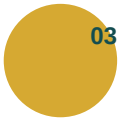

LEARN

Build a shared foundation through focused, accessible sessions.

TRY

Apply the skills in a supported practical workshop.

CONNECT

Meet mentors and peers who can help with the next step.

Learning by doing.

A workshop creates space to ask questions, test an idea and learn alongside other people. The photograph illustrates the hands-on programme format.
